

SAC CARING TEACHER AWARD NOMINEES 2020

Mr Dennis Wong always makes sure that we understand whatever topic he is teaching. He ensures that we do every task that he gives us to help us improve in our grades. Whenever he sees someone having problems or feeling stressed, he would always find time to talk to them and help if possible. He also helps students who are weak in that particular subject. He always motivates and supports us to study more so that in the end, we can pass our exams. - Syuhuda, 2R7

Ms Ramadevi is a wonderful and understanding teacher. She always helps us out in a lot of ways, and really respects and loves our class a lot. She understands our pain and feelings and I am really happy that she is my Form Teacher this year. Even if I have done anything wrong, she encourages me and teaches me to become a better person. Ms Rama takes care of all of us like her own children. – Priya, 3R8

Mr Lawrence Ng has been really caring to me, even though he does scold me a lot. I can see that whatever he says to me is for my benefit, and that he is just trying to shape my character, so that I can become a better person. He often motivates me to come to school and sees so much potential in me, even though I know I have let him down many, many times. Though it may seem that we do not get along, it's all good! – Kingsley, 4R6

Mr Daryl Toy is a funny and caring teacher, even if he is strict at times. He always encourages us to do our best. He put in so much effort to help us with our class noticeboard, something I don't see other teachers doing, often staying back to help us after school. He has also been helping us so much for English, teaching us again and again in order to help us understand better. Mr Toy always asks us if we are feeling low and motivates us to do more. He is a really amazing, caring and wonderful teacher who perseveres to help us do our best. – Pugazendhi, 1C5

Mr Theodore Tan is a teacher who always makes lessons fun and interesting because he knows that we are very tired and stressed. All his little actions show us that he really cares for us and he also never gives up on me when I have been scoring so badly for his subject. Instead, he tells me the correct way to study and answer the questions and with his help, I have managed to score much better. His class always makes me feel relaxed and gives me the positive vibes to persevere on. – Ying Fei, 4R3

Mr Ng Jan Ile has always been so caring towards his students. He is very patient whenever he teaches us, making sure that we understand the concepts he is trying to teach. He is willing to stay back and teach any student with difficulty coping with POA. He is very passionate about the subject, making a POA guidebook for us on his own, so that we can do our revision easily. I have personally enjoyed my POA lessons because of how Mr Jan engages us and he is a very special teacher to me. – Parvena, 4R3

Mr Oh Tze Ming is really friendly and caring. The way he teaches us is amazing and allows us to understand easily. He always put on a smile on his face instead of having a fierce look. I hope everyone gets a teacher like him, who always motivates his students and gives encouragement to us. – Simran, 1C8

Mrs Charmaine Tan is a very kind, caring and understanding teacher. She goes beyond her duty to make sure we are not facing any problems and to see that our needs are met. Mrs Tan conducts extra lessons for those who need more guidance and allows us to submit our work later if we are facing some personal issues. She has always been there for us and she is a trustworthy person to talk to about our problems. – Felix George, 3R1

Ms Ivy Lim cares a lot for our mental and emotional well-being. Over the Circuit Breaker period, she would text or call us to check on whether we were too stressed. There was a time when I was going through a tough time and she told me that I could rant to her about my problems. Ms Ivy does not treat us like her students but instead treats us as her family, so much so that she looks out for all of us whenever we have problems both academically and emotionally. – Maria, 4R1

Mrs Anusiyah Thiru puts in a great amount of effort in helping us flourish in our academic work and teaches us with a lot of enthusiasm. She never leaves any student behind and relentlessly showers us with encouragement and motivation for us to excel successfully. Furthermore, she instils in us the values of how we should not discriminate against others and how we should take ownership of our actions. I always look forward to her lessons as she also tells us a plethora of jokes that enlivens the entire class! – Shairafaye, 1C2

Ms Nicole Choong has been very caring to me. I really appreciate her as my counsellor. Sometimes she approaches me to ask how I am. She is always there to support my family and I, for things that we need in our lives. I really appreciate everything about Ms Choong! – Mohd Danish, 2R8

Ms Lim Ying Shung is very patient with us even when we are loud and talk a lot. She has never raised her voice at us and is extremely kind and caring. Throughout these eight months, she has given me countless chances whenever I make mistakes. She is an inspiration to my class and shows us all a lot of concern, affection and consideration. – Aden, 1C1

Ms Vimala really knows how to take care of our class. She is one person who never gives up on 2R8 and often tries her best to only show us a happy smile in front of her students. Even if she struggles with the class, she still puts in so much effort to do her best for us. She has the purest heart and can be funny and strict. I want to show my love and respect for Ms Vimala, and thank her for everything she has done. – Nur Aisyahra, 2R8

Mr Benedict Ong is always positive when teaching in class. He tries to make his lessons more interesting by joking around at times. He also cares about each and every one of us. He notes down each of our weaknesses and tries to help us with the types of questions we are weak in. Mr Ong is one of the most special teachers, and I really like him. – Zi Yang, 1C2

Mrs Cynthia Ho never gives up on us. She always tries her best to teach us in any way possible. Though she is strict, she is a kind teacher because she buys files for those who cannot afford them. She is always keeping us organised and cares for everyone equally, showing no discrimination and favouritism. – Afroza Khatun, 2R6

Mrs Elaine Wong is very patient in teaching me Math although this is my weakest subject. She treats all of us in the same way, and never loses patience with us. I can see that she is the most caring teacher I have ever met and I definitely consider having her as my Math teacher a blessing to me. – Kok Fong, 3R7

Mr Han Hong Kwong has always encouraged me to do my best and never give up. When I am in doubt, he would never fail to help me and has a lot of patience teaching me. He always teaches me to not worry about my exam marks as it is already over and I can always try to do better the next time. – Gillian, 3R3

Mdm Jamie Chua always entertains the class so that Math is more enjoyable. Since we have a lot of Math periods, she often gives us sweets to help us focus better in class. She also frequently holds after-school remedial classes as well as Google Meets online for the weaker students. She always encourages us to do our best and believes that effort is more important than our grades. – Sherrise, 3R1

Mr Mark Sanjay definitely shows interest and enthusiasm in teaching our class. He teaches our class with an extreme amount of interest and also possesses a lot of humour. He thus makes my learning experience better and way more interesting. Mr Sanjay also ensures that everyone understands what he is teaching and will help those of us in need. He is also strict when he needs to be, and I am really appreciative of him. I would definitely want to be continue to be taught by Mr Sanjay! – Angelis, 2R4

Ms Mavis Lee always has the ability to understand our personal situations and tries her best to help us. When I was at a very low point of my life, she not only helped me achieve good grades but also listened to me, being one of the few teachers who helped to push me to where I am now. Even now, Ms Lee jokes with me and checks in with me, giving me encouraging advice and comforting me when I am stressed due to my own high expectations. – Kevin, 4R7

Mrs Agnes Tan has always been a teacher who is very easy to get along with. She often spends time after school to help us and other weaker students, those who require more guidance and consultation in Geography. She cheers us up by giving us small tokens as a form of encouragement. Due to her efforts, I have found much motivation to do better and pass my Geography with flying colours! – Raihan, 4R5

Ms Shamini is a really caring teacher. During the Circuit Breaker period, I wrote a reflection about being late for SLS and I included some personal thoughts. Ms Shamini called me to ask if I was ok, and whether I needed someone to talk to and reassure and comfort me. She also makes sure that everyone has fun in her class. Though she can be strict at times, she means well and I am very grateful to her for caring so much for us. – Clara, 1C4

Mdm Soh Bee Keow shows her care for us in various ways. Once, when one of my classmates was injured, she asked us to accompany her to the clinic. Later, she also came to the clinic to check on us and to see if we were ok. She then booked a Grab ride for us to ensure that we got home safely. During POA lessons, Mdm Soh always makes sure that we understand the topics that are taught, and if we have difficulty comprehending, she would explain them to us again very patiently. – Meilin, 3R3

Ms Sabrina Wee has helped me through many of my problems. She has always been there for me and helps me in Chemistry, as well as many other issues. She has always cared for our class as if we are her own children, and for that, she has really gained my respect and gratitude. – Mohd Raahil, 3R6

Mr Tay Guangyu constantly keeps his cool and continues to cheer me up despite my unwillingness to put in more effort for his subject. He does the same for some of my other classmates as well. His constant encouragement and determination to push us to go at our own pace has motivated me currently to do better, so that I can make him proud. – Gerald, 4R4

Mr Kenneth Goh is the teacher I would look for whenever I have trouble in my studies or need some guidance. Whenever I have any doubt, he would be the first to notice and answer whatever question I have. He would also chat with me whenever I look down, or would get me to share my interests like music and shows. I can see that he is a genuinely nice and caring teacher. – Yasmine, 4R8

Ms Wendy Hu is the most caring teacher I have ever met. She helps me throughout my difficulties not only for History, but also whenever I am feeling down. She listens to my problems and gives me the best advice I need. She sacrifices her time for my History classmates and me for consultations for us to improve in the subject. I appreciate her efforts in helping us, as because of her, I was able to excel in my Humanities for my N Level exams last year. – Jasmine, 5R1

Ms Dawn Lim is a calm and patient teacher who tries to connect with the class she is teaching or sees on a regular basis. During the Circuit Breaker period, she called me a few times to check up on me and it was really nice to know that someone other than my family members cares for my well-being. E-learning was tough for me so it helped a lot that she called. – Ana, 3R7

Mrs Sharon Chin is very focused on making the class to be the best that we can be. She wants us to do well for our GCE N Level exams so that we can apply for PFP. She is also very hard on herself as during the Circuit Breaker period, she sacrificed much of her own personal time to help us plan our schedules to help us plan for our national exams. I would like to express my gratitude for her for being such a great teacher. – Si Jun, 4R5

Mdm Lee Poh Ching is a really caring teacher who ensures that everybody understands and knows what she is teaching in class. Even though she already has two Sec 4 classes this year, she still makes time for us in her Sec 3 class. She will always help those who are lacking or not as strong in specific areas of the subject by conducting 1-on-1 Zoom classes! – Calvin, 3R2

Mdm Noorlizah is very approachable and we can talk to her about our problems. She cares for the class a lot. I had a few problems in class and she would talk to me about them one by one. She is very encouraging and caring to us. I can see how she treats all of us with respect and fairness even though I have only known her for less than a year. – Megan Lee, 1C6

Mr Eric Choo is always looking out for the whole class. He always offers extra lessons to help us in topics we are unsure of, but he does not force them on us. He asks us if we have questions about our homework and goes through them patiently. Mr Choo cares about our well-being, as I would talk to him whenever I am extremely stressed, as he is able to comfort me. He is always easy to talk to, making learning and asking questions easier, frequently encouraging us to do our best. – Chiara, 1C3

Ms Ruth Tang cares for everyone's well-being and how her students are coping with the subject. Though she only took over the class after Circuit Breaker, the past few weeks have gone on smoothly thanks to her, with me not feeling stressed or left behind, especially when we are doing a crucial part of our coursework. She is always open to students' enquiries and helps us accordingly when needed. – Justin, 3R2
